

MORTGAGE LATE? DON'T WAIT!

Attend a FREE Workshop

- Learn how foreclosure can be prevented.
- Talk to housing counselors and fraud investigators.
- Find out how Maryland's new foreclosure prevention laws affect you.
- Meet with loan servicers.

WHAT TO BRING

- All mortgage paperwork including loan application, settlement paperwork, and lender statements.
- All foreclosure notices, or threats of foreclosure.
- Monthly household budget and pay stubs.

on
Saturday, November 14, 2009
10AM—4PM

Montgomery College
Takoma Park/Silver Spring Performing Arts Center
7989 Georgia Avenue
Silver Spring, Maryland

TO MEET WITH AN ATTORNEY AT THE EVENT

Please call InCharge Housing at 1-866-357-5103 to receive telephone housing counseling services prior to the event.

Sponsored by:

- Governor's Commission on Hispanic Affairs
- Maryland Department of Housing and Community Development
- Montgomery Co. Department of Housing and Community Affairs
- Montgomery Co. College-Takoma Park Campus
- Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond
- Fannie Mae
- Freddie Mac
- NeighborWorks America
- Pro Bono Resource Center of Maryland
- Civil Justice
- MD HOPE Housing Counselors
- Housing Initiative Partnership
- HomeFree USA
- Latino Economic Development Corp.
- Centro de Apoyo Familiar
- Bud Miller Associates, Inc.

MARYLAND

www.mdhope.org

MARTIN O'MALLEY
Governor

ANTHONY G. BROWN
Lt. Governor